General Assembly 2015 in Budapest - Review

On May 9th, IGC held its general assembly and celebrated its 20th anniversary. Our special thanks goes to Istvan Rado, IFUA Horváth & Partners KFT and György Drótos, Corvinus-University of Budapest for being perfect hosts. 43 participants - representing 35 member organizations –enjoyed the hospitality right in the wonderful historic center of Budapest. The agenda included inspiring presentations by charter member, Peter Horváth, Klaus Möller, and Rita Niedermayr-Kruse. It was our great honor to welcome Raef Lawson, Vice-President Research from IMA Institute of Management Accounting, who again came from the US to attend the meeting.

After 20 years, Lukas Rieder stepped down as a member of IGC's executive committee. He was the last active charter member and served as a member of the executive committee with great commitment since IGC was chartered in 1995. IGC's honorary president Dr. Wolfgang Berger-Vogel held the laudation. Lukas Rieder was rewarded with standing ovations. Prof. Klaus Möller, University of St. Gallen, was elected as Lukas Rieder's successor in IGC's executive committee.

We are pleased to announce that maintenance certification was given to Conrad Günther and Klaus Eiselmayr of Controller Akademie AG (Das systematische Trainingsprogramm in fünf Stufen der CA Controller Akademie).

Controller Competence Model

Over the summer, IGC will be finishing its latest publication entitled "Developing Competences - Increasing Performance - The new controller competence model of IGC". In fall 2015 it will be published in German and English and is structured as follows:

- Part I: Fundamentals and Reference Framework
- Part II: Critical Success Competences of Controllers
- Part III: Implementing Competence Management for Controllers
- Part IV: Implications for HR-management in the Controller-Function
- Appendix: Competence Catalogue, Competence Descriptions

The script is now completed and the next few weeks will be used for fine-tuning and proofreading. The 160-page publication describes an integrated model for competence management in the field of controlling for the first time. It addresses controllers, HR executives, managers and training institutions and provides an applicable tool for the development, evaluation and control of competences. To meet the required competences of controllers the professional building and maintaining of competences is key. The publication provides valuable guidance on competence management.

IGC members have the opportunity to order hard copies at a discount at Haufe before printing. At the beginning of September IGC members will receive an order list with the final terms.
