IGC Standards on the web

We are proud to announce that IGC standards will be available for download for IGC members in the members area by late summer 2018.

2.) Interview

The current newsletter provides you with an interview by Prof. Klaus Müller with Daniel Schubert, Head of Corporate Controlling of ZF Friedrichshafen. The interview "See, Think, Act – How ZF Meets Global Trends" gives insights into how the world's largest automotive supplier deals with significant challenges in the automotive industry.

3.) Trends and Studies

We are proud to provide you with the final version of our study "Dissemination of Controlling Standard of the International Group of Controlling". Thanks to the work group, in particular to Mike Schulze, for all the effort he has put in for almost three years.

The second study addresses the role of controllers in the U.S. The IMA and Deloitte report "Stepping Outside the Box: Elevating the Role of the Controller" looks in-depth at how controllers in the U.S. are spending their time, in an effort to uncover what they can do to elevate their role at the executive level.
